Whereas, There is an imperative need of a larger endowment for Millsaps College if it would maintain its place among the first grade of educational institutions of the South and command the patronage to which it is entitled, its present income being entirely inadequate to its growing needs, and

Whereas, That generous friend of Christian education, Maj. R. W. Millsaps, still offers to the church in Mississippi to duplicate every dollar up to $25,000.00 annually which the church may give for the endowment of Millsaps College, so that every dollar we may give for this purpose is immediately doubled, such an offer being a standing challenge to the church of its interest and belief in higher Christian education, and

Whereas, We believe we should press most vigorously a thorough canvass of the state for a sum sufficient to adequately endow Millsaps College and that this canvass should begin at once, therefore,

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that the time has fully come when the trustees of this college should elect and send into the state an agent for such a canvass and that we pledge him our unmeasured support and co-operation.

Memoirs.

THOMAS L. FOSTER.

Thomas L. Foster, son of Moses D. and Nancy Foster, was born in Lowndes County, Miss., September 23, 1833. He was converted at Friendship, Fayette County, Ala., when ten years of age, was licensed to preach in Chickasaw County, Miss., September 26, 1856; was ordained deacon by Bishop Early at Baton Rouge, La., December, 1859; ordained elder by Bishop Paine and admitted on trial in the Memphis Conference, November, 1867; admitted into full connection in the Illinois Conference, September, 1869, and died July 3, 1906.

Let us look at this long life from two standpoints—that of its development and that of its fulfillment. First, few lives have been so fortunately safeguarded in youth as was that of T. L. Foster. His parents were as devoted as parents can be and their religion was of the purest type. His father was for many years a local preacher of great usefulness. His mother was one of the most devout and useful women ever known in the community where she lived, constantly admonishing her children and others to do their whole duty. No wonder that from such a home the Lord raised up three sons to preach the Gospel of his Son. Such results of home training should be an inspiration to all the Christian parents of the land. So flows the stream of Puritan blood to bless the entire country. It is no surprise that T. L. Foster was good; it would have been very strange, had he been bad. From the near relatives of this man can eight preachers. So much for heredity and environment.

Second, the fulfillment of this life. Brother Foster was licensed to preach at about the age of twenty-three, but did not join the traveling connection till he was about thirty-four. He did about ten years of faithful and efficient work in the Illinois Conference, three of these years being spent in the Presiding Eldership. His health giving away in that rigorous climate, he located and returned to Mississippi, regained his health and was re-admitted into the North Mississippi Conference in 1880.

He was a strong preacher. His perception of truth was clear and his style was terse. His preaching left no doubt of his satisfactory experience. Having this, he gave confident utterance to his messages. In other settings his life would undoubtedly have meant more to the church, to himself, and to the world. A glance at the list of his appointments will show how stern was the fight of this noble life. Faithful in hardships and valiant in defeat, he has gone where honors are worn by the worthy. His life is a fresh evidence of the truth of Christianity.

Brother Foster was three times married, and is survived by Sister Foster and seven children. These sorrow and wait till the happy reunion shall come.

His body was laid to rest in Double Springs Cemetery July 4, 1906, with services conducted by J. W. Dorman and T. J. Hopper. There it awaits the resurrection of the just.

ELECT WOMEN.

The history of Methodist achievement is not all written in the fidelity and devotion of the itinerant preachers. The true record will place a crown on the saintly women who have been the silent sharers of their service, self-sacrifice, and suffering. Since Susanna Wesley taught the world by her own life the value and power of a consecrated and intelligent helpmeet, the wife of the preacher has been a quiet but potential factor in his work. The record of her devotion to the ministerial ideal, her uncomplaining toil, her tender sympathies, her unwearying cheerfulness in the midst of drudgery, will form a large part in the history of every preacher's life. Therefore when one of these helpers in the Gospel passes away, it is fitting that the records should show our loss. Our Conference has been peculiarly bereft this year in the removal of six of these saints from the work of life.

Mrs. Ritchey, wife of Rev. John Ritchey, very soon after Conference was called to her reward. Her life was one of self-sacrificing devotion to her husband and children. The home was the center of her influence. A tired itinerant found on his home-coming a place of rest. The children, yielding to maternal as well as paternal ideals, have revealed in their lives a mother devoted to the home and the duties of home life.

Mrs. Sue Eugene Bachman, born in DeSoto County, Miss., November 18, 1841, converted and received into the church in her thirteenth year, married to Rev. G. W. Bachman November 1, 1866, was transferred to heaven on January 10, 1906. During more than thirty-nine years, she was the true, devoted companion of an itinerant preacher—a model wife, a devoted mother, a womanly Christian, a faithful church member. The end came as a transfiguration. For many days she seemed on the borderland of heaven. She talked to us of the loved ones on the other side, and to them of us. Those who watched until the end came felt that they had witnessed an ascension rather than a death.

Mrs. Lagrone, wife of Rev. W. S. Lagrone, was born July 4, 1852, and died June 12, 1906. Sister Lagrone professed religion and joined the church under the ministry of Rev. F. S. Petway in the year 1859. She was married to Rev. W. S. Lagrone in Perry County, Ala., January 7, 1869. One who knew her well for many years said she was a woman of gentleness, great tenderness, deep and unaffected piety. Her home duties and the care of her children prevented her from taking an active part in the work of the church, but her heart was always in it. A devout Christian, a devoted wife and mother, she was ready when the call came.

Sister J. T. Cunningham, born June 2, 1837, converted in early life, married to Rev. J. T. Cunningham February 14, 1860, went to her reward after two months' indisposition, on September 23, 1906. Sister Cunningham was a woman of strong character, true culture, and genuine piety. She lived an unselfish life of helpfulness and sympathy for those around her. She was loved by all who knew her. To her family, she was all things noble, true, elevating and helpful.

In the early morning hours of October 18, 1906, at Coldwater, Miss., Mrs. Mary Louise Weir, consort of Rev. T. C. Weir, passed quickly from the earthly house of this tabernacle to her home in the house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. The passage was without pain or fear. Her long and devoted life as a follower of Christ, culminated in triumph over sin and death. She was reared in a Christian home where the itinerant Methodist preacher was an honored guest, and in early life gave herself to Christ and joined his followers.

On May 4, 1858, she became the wife of Rev. T. C. Weir, and filled her place with fidelity to the end. Her participation in the work of the church was hearty and efficient. Her ministry in the home life was gentle, patient, loving, and her life a model.

Mrs. Lucinda McCormick Jones, wife of Rev. K. A. Jones, on October 10, 1906, quietly passed to her Father's house. At 11 years of age she consecrated herself to Christ and the church and her life was the product of this consecration. December 29, 1857, she was happily married to Rev. K. A. Jones. In the itinerancy she was at home. With remarkable power of adaptability she seemed prepared for any and every station in the life of an itinerant who has filled all clases of appointments. Her friends were as numerous as her acquaintances. She was first in all church enterprises. She consistently gave one-tenth of her income to the Lord, and many women's societies were helped to new life by her zeal and liberality. For some time she knew the end was drawing near, and calmly contemplated the passage, speaking of it and arranging for it as quietly as if it were but a brief visit.

Reports.

THE SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The proofs of a good spiritual condition are not of necessity difficult to understand and they are fittingly indicated by the Savior when he says, "By their fruits ye shall know them"—not by genealogy, not by succession, not by correct theology, not by appropriate ceremonials, important as all these are,—but by their fruits. James gives another statement of the same truth when he says, "I will show you my faith by my works." Bishop Hendrix has well said, "Vital communion with Christ has no substitute."

The fruits of the Spirit appear also in consecrated gifts and resources invested for the cause of Christ and the good of humanity. Gambling in futures, fondness for cards and for the theater do not class among the evidences of an excellent spiritual condition. On the contrary, these should cause grave apprehension wherever they exist even to a small extent. The light of such church members may be said to be under a bushel and their salt to be in serious danger of losing its savor.

The diminished number of family altars is a sign of the times indicative of no good to the cause of Christ. A spiritual church will always be a prosperous and successful church. "Christ formed in us the hope of glory" is a proof of triumph achieved, and a prophecy of an eternal salvation. The essentials of religion have been the same from the first and shall so remain to the very end. "One Lord, one faith, one baptism"—of the Holy Ghost—has been the happy heritage of God's own through all the ages and must ever remain as the richest legacy and provision for human good. "By one Spirit we are all baptized into one body" and "if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of His." Gifts may differ, ceremonials vary, methods be many and diverse, but everywhere the Spirit of Christ is the same.

Sound conversion and earnest doctrinal preaching cannot be too strongly emphasized as essentials to the development of true spirituality, and of the finest graces, and the highest efficiency in that service which perpetuates the victories of the kingdom. Paul's injunction is "take heed unto thyself" and "unto the doctrine." Unmistakable evidences of divine approbation are seen throughout our church. Large contributions for educational purposes, increased gifts for the cause of missions, and the unusual number of conversions and accessions to the church this year, all attest the fact of ministerial efficiency and verify the promise, "Lo, I am with you alway, even to the end of the world."

At no time in the history of the North Mississippi Conference, have the preachers wrought more sincerely in keeping the apostolic injunction to do the work of an evangelist, and the large investments for elegant churches and parsonages, and the earnest personal work for souls demonstrate the consecration and piety of the great body of our membership. It is believed that there have been in the bounds of our Conference this year at last three thousand conversions. About this number have been added to the church on profession of faith. There has been a net gain of 2,310 in our membership. The contributions for various benevolences were probably never larger than the present year.

In conclusion we insist that the children shall not only attend Sunday School, but the preaching of the Word; that the general rules shall be faithfully read in every congregation; that our people shall not neglect to kneel or at least bow their heads when prayer is made in the congregations; that while the class meeting in its original form is well-nigh extinct, testimony services are still helpful, in order that "those who love the Lord may speak often one to another."

W. W. WILLIAMS, President.

A. H. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

With joy and pride we note the continual growth of prohibition sentiment. The saloon in our state is very nearly a thing of the past. We have reason also to believe that the rum traffic as carried on in what are generally known as "blind tigers" has been materially lessened and, in many towns and communities, entirely stamped out. Our moral, educational, social, and legal restrictions have very greatly discouraged and hindered whisky vendors in their nefarious and destructive work. But we are not yet satisfied. Not until intoxicants of every kind cease to be used as a beverage; not until interstate commerce laws refuse to recognize them as commodities of trade and prohibit their transportation as such; not until they have been classed by legislative enactment with strychnine and other dangerous drugs, and placed entirely in the hands of wise and discriminating physicians, can we afford to slacken our efforts. No evil is doing more than this to counteract the influence of the Gospel, to corrupt the character of our youth, to bring our women to shame and sorrow, to render the evangelistic work of our churches null and void. In view of these facts, we recommend the following:

Resolved, 1st, That we pledge ourselves to do all in our power to discourage the use of intoxicants as a beverage.

Second. That we will aid in every possible way the officers of the law in bringing to justice illicit distillers and vendors and in preventing the jug trade by express.

Third. That we petition the Congress of the United States and the Legislature of Mississippi to do all they can to restrict and if possible to prevent the shipment of intoxicants into prohibition territory.

Fourth. That we call the attention of the railroad and express companies to the fact that in allowing their agents to deliver jugs and other packages to consignees on Sunday on the pretext that they are interstate commerce, and in allowing drinking at their depots and express offices, they are allowing said agents to violate the laws of our commonwealth as well as trampling upon the civil and moral rights of best citizenship and desecrating the holy Sabbath.

Fifth. That we most heartily approve the law enacted by the last Legislature providing that any person found in possession of as much as one half gallon of an intoxicant is liable to arrest and punishment if he shall fail to prove that he is not a dealer in intoxicants.

Sixth. That we thank Rev. J. W. Raper for going in person to the Legislature and helping to secure the action just mentioned.

(Signed) W. G. HARBIN,

D. M. GEDDIE,

For the Committee.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

We have carefully examined the records placed in our hands, seven in number, that of the Grenada District not having been before us. They have been well kept except in minor matters, much improvement being manifest in the past few years.

The record of the Columbus District is a model of neatness and accuracy. That of the Aberdeen District is in excellent order and very neat. The order of arrangement in the others is not so good. The Sardis District needs a new record, since the printing at the top of the pages in the present record was made for the last century and it cannot be neatly changed. We recommend that all districts use the records provided by the publishing agents.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Nothing, save the preaching of the Gospel, is more important than the reading our people do. If they are to be developed intellectually and spiritually, they must have sound, sensible, and spiritual books and periodicals. "As a man thinketh, so is he." Only pure thinking can lead to pure life. In this age of printing, there is much trashy literature utterly unfit to come into a Christian home. The antidote and substitute for this must be found in the church.

We are glad to hear of the increasing trade of our publishing houses in Nashville, Tenn., and Dallas, Tex. From these houses tens of thousands of good books are circulated among our people. There is no book published that cannot be bought through our own house at publishers' prices.

We are greatly rejoiced at the constantly increasing circulation of the Nashville Christian Advocate, the general organ of our church. We are delighted to note the high class work done in its editorial departments, and the success of its editors and publishers in adapting its pages and departments to the needs and tastes of all the people of our church. Notwithstanding these things, and admitting the great improvement in the Advocate during the last few months, we cannot let this opportunity pass without expressing our disapproval of certain editorial utterances which we think were out of harmony with the accepted teachings of our church, and, as we believe, hurtful in their tendency.

The Epworth Era is bright, breezy, religious, and well adapted to the needs of our young people. We heartily wish that a copy of this paper could be placed in every home in our church where there are children and young people.

The Methodist Review, so long and so ably edited by Dr. J. J. Tigert, gives promise of continued strength and usefulness under the editorial direction of Dr. Gross Alexander. This Review attracts attention in all parts of the world. No thoughtful and growing preacher can afford to be without it and it ought to be in the homes of our leading laymen.

Our Sunday School publications are ably edited and each one is admirably suited to the class for which it is prepared. The Magazine is worthy of the highest praise. It is choice reading from beginning to end. The home department literature should be in every family not connected with a Sunday School.

The New Orleans Christian Advocate is, we are pleased to note, much improved in its mechanical make-up and largely increased in circulation. By the arrangement with the publisher, the editor is relieved of all responsibility for the publication and mailing of the paper. The Advocate is indispensable to the work of the church in our bounds. It is the pastor's most efficient helper in developing and confirming the spiritual life of his people. It is a clean paper which never gives an uncertain sound on any doctrine of our church. Dr. Boswell is always ready to "banish and drive away all strange doctrines." We recommend the continuance of the same publishing committee.

A good work has been done by Brother Bachman, Conference Colporter. He has been active and energetic, as his sales show, having sold books to the amount of $2,672.50 during the year. He has also secured subscriptions to our papers to the amount of $171.90 and sold S. S. literature to the amount of $265.75, making a total of $3,110.15. We most heartily recommend his reappointment as Conference Colporter.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES E. CUNNINGHAM, Chairman.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The question of most far-reaching importance concerning America to-day is: Will she master or be mastered by her recent great material development? Will she resolutely subordinate the vast machinery of modern life to her higher and holier interests? or will she allow these to be forgotten, overwhelmed, and lost by the pressure of material concerns?

The answer to this question is, we believe, almost identical with the answer to the question: What shall become of the American Sabbath? For when a nation becomes so absorbed in business enterprise and in its rush for pleasure and for gold that it has not time to stop, to think, to consider, to worship, then its vision is gone and the people perish.

We look with serious alarm upon the already wide-spread tendency to secularize and desecrate the Holy Sabbath and we are convinced of the need of definite agitation of this subject on the part of the church. Not to mention the more flagrant instances, such as are found chiefly in our large cities, we find that our railroads generally, not only do not seek in any way to limit their traffic on this day, but by advertised Sunday excursions and special Sunday round-trip rates tend to foster in our people a habit of disregarding the Sabbath as a day of worship and making it a day of running about, seeking pleasure or social intercourse. Further, our daily papers not only continue their issues on Sunday, but especially advertise and elaborately illustrate their great Sunday editions, thus inviting the attention of the people away from a reverent thought and worship of God to things secular, frivolous, and empty of moral helpfulness.

We would not fail to recognize the place of these mighty forces in our American life, but we do deprecate and protest against their perversion into a propaganda of secularism, wherein they not merely respond to a demand but seek to create and enlarge that demand for their own gain.

Your committee, recognizing that legislation, which is not supported by a wholesome public sentiment, will be, as it often now is, but a dead letter, submits the following resolutions for consideration and adoption by the Conference:

Resolved, 1st, That we call the attention of railroad authorities and newspaper men to the fact that, by their special inducements to promote Sunday travel and secular reading, they are not only not promoting but are doing actual injury to the highest interests of mankind.

Resolved, 2nd, That we remind these authorities that they, as well as we, are accountable to God for the maintainance of the integrity and stability of our national life, and that we urge them to consider, not merely the gain to be derived, but the influence exerted, and to desist from all methods whereby they tend to promote the secularization of the Christian Sabbath.

Resolved, 3rd, That we by precept and example seek to avoid and banish from our homes on the Sabbath such reading of Sunday newspapers and such diversions as tend to secularize the mind and heart, whereby one is so far unfitted to receive the benefit of true spiritual service and worship in the home and in the sanctuary.

Resolved, 4th, That we deplore the neglect of helpful Sunday reading on the part of old as well as young, and that we emphasize the Sabbath as a day of worship and religious instruction, reading and prayer in the home as well as in the church.

Resolved, 5th, That we warn our people against and carefully abstain ourselves from Sunday travel by railroad and all-day visiting unless in cases of absolute necessity, realizing that this is one of the most fruitful sources of neglect and worship and of decay in religious life.

Resolved, 6th, That we everywhere regard and impress upon others, as of binding authority, the divine command, "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy."

T. H. LIPSCOMB,

For the Committee.

EDUCATION.

Invaluable results have come to our church from the organization of her scholastic work under the direction of the General Board of Education. Under the enlightened policy we now possess, we have systematic order and co-operative adjustment which if pursued with wisdom and energy will secure to us sound investment of funds and the best results of Christian Education. We are greatly gratified at the report from the General Board. It only needs that the several Annual Conferences in the creation and conduct of their schools, shall give their co-operation to the plans of the General Board to secure the largest results.

We have special cause for thanksgiving for the following facts gleaned from the record of the past year: Value of grounds and buildings, $9,789,728, an increase of $1,151,729; new buildings erected or completed, 54, an increase of 22; cost of new buildings, $812,074, increase, $377,516; total endowment, $3,516,173; increase, $115,711; total income, $1,768,108; increase, $680,993; value of gifts and legacies, $557,541; increase, $266,165; improvements, exclusive of new buildings, $245,555, increase, $48,820; total teachers, 1,849, increase, 255; students, 34,446; increase, 5,368; students looking to the ministry, 658, increase, 32. The same report says: "A notable feature in our educational development is the fact that an increasing number of our people are contributing regularly in small amounts to educational support. It is worthy of comment, however, that the increase in Annual Conference collections has during the quadrennium, outstripped that of gifts and legacies.

In Vanderbilt University we have a scholastic institution of invaluable worth to Southern Methodism. Its halls are attended by increasing numbers of young men seeking to prepare themselves for the itinerant ministry. From the home and the foreign fields, more than 600 such young men have passed through these halls in the past quadrennium. The Correspondence Department of this great school offers courses for undergraduates on all the subjects in the Conference course of study, besides twenty-one graduate courses. The enrollment the present year of undergraduates alone is 660. This is a great stream of young manhood, enriching all our ministry—prophecy of the hastening conquest of the world.

Resolved, That we recognize the very great value of the work being done at Vanderbilt University, and that we accord to its trustees and faculties of instruction our confidence and support.

Resolved, 2nd, That we commend Vanderbilt University to our young men who seek the most thorough education, and that we again urge all our undergraduates to prosecute their Conference Course with the Correspondence School.

Grenada College is moving forward to perfection. As in the case of an individual, the character of an institution determines its reason for being. Grenada College has a high ideal which has passed the stage of germination, has made branch, foliage, flower, and even a wealth of fruitage can be seen all about us. The student body is each year becoming more intelligent in aspiration and more efficient in execution. The graduates are centers of influence that make for righteousness in their home communities. Intelligent devotion to the church is woven into the college life of the graduates of this school so deeply that it ever after affects their home life. We commend Grenada College as an institution controlled by the idea of making a life for God and the giving of this life back to God. We are gratified that an endowment has been inaugurated and that the sum of $10,000 has been subscribed to this fund.

It is highly gratifying to the Board to be able to report Millsaps College in a most prosperous condition. Two hundred and seventy students have already been enrolled the present session, indicating an enrollment for the year of at least three hundred. There are twenty young men in the college this year preparing for the ministry—seven of these being from our territory. Twenty-eight students are the sons of preachers. The religious atmosphere of the college is excellent. Such are the influences here that most boys are safer at college than at home.

We note the generous gift of $15,000 by Mr. Carnegie to build a library upon the campus of Millsaps College and a like gift from Maj. Millsaps to endow the library. During the past eighteen months $80,000 have been added to our resources, $30,000 of which goes to the endowment, $30,000 to the library, and $20,000 is in cash and subscriptions. Yet there is a pressing need for a larger endowment and increased resources to meet the ever enlarging opportunities before us. We commend the college to our people as being in every way worthy of their most hearty support.

W. T. J. SULLIVAN, Chairman.

MISSIONS.

During the year now closing the Board of Missions has had under its care thirty-one mission charges to which we have made appropriations of $3,850, as follows:

Arkabutla	$100	Longtown	$ 25	Waterford	$100
Wall Hill.....	75	Randolph	100	Crenshaw	200
Toceopola	75	Slate Springs ..	100	Vance	200
Mars Hill.....	100	Tomnolen	100	2nd Church Colum- bus	250
Rural Hill	150	Starkville Mis...	150	Cedar Bluff	150
Winstonville	100	Mathiston	150	Houlka	100
Ellzey	100	Okolona Mis....	100	Ashland	100
Blue Springs	150	Corinth Mis....	200	Belmont	50
Iuka Mis.....	125	Burnt Mills	100	Austin and Dun- dee	150
Lake Cormorant..	250	Burnsville	100
Bethel	150	Red Banks	50

Some of our pastors on missions have had very inadequate support, yet have done faithful and efficient work. These mission charges are the fields from which we draw some of our best men. They must not be neglected. In some portions of our territory our rural population is moving into the towns, thus making the maintenance of our rural charges more and more the care of your Board. New fields are being opened and our church must immediately enter them. Especially is this true of the rapidly growing Yazoo Delta. We are pleased to note that in the Greenville District there is being enterprised the establishment of five new mission charges, and not less than twenty new preaching places. While we are not yet confronted with the conditions of a large foreign immigration, or of city and factory problems to a great extent, we do have the problem of a rapidly depleting rural church. It is but right that our growing towns should assist our ever weakening country charges. It has therefore been necessary to increase the assessment for Domestic Missions.

There was never a time when the work in our foreign fields was so inviting and promising as now. The obligation of the church increases with its multiplying opportunities. While the church at large is enterprising greater things for our Lord, it is not to our credit as a Conference that our activities are so feeble and our increase in collections so small. As pastors we need quickening to a sense of our responsibility as leaders and teachers in this high calling.

The movement for the individual support of missionary pastors and the building of missionary chapels is growing rapidly. We are glad to know that one of our churches, Greenwood, has undertaken the support of a missionary, and another, West Point, has undertaken the building of a mission chapel in Japan. We confidently look forward to the time when this movement will be much larger in our Conference.

We rejoice that this year two of our districts, the Winona and the Greenville, have paid their entire missionary assessments. In others earnest efforts have been made to that end. But why may not our well organized charges refuse to be content with paying the bare assessment? A large per cent. of our charges have fallen far below their assessments.

The Board of Missions has entered again with the other Boards of the Conference into an arrangement for the Mid-Year Conference. The one held last June was gratifying in its results. We confidently anticipate a much better Conference this year. J. A. Bowen, L. M. Broyles and J. T. Lewis will represent the Board of Missions in arranging for his Conference.

We have enterprised the establishment of a Missionary Circulating Library, and have appropriated $200 for the purchase of books. These books will be at the call of our people who will pay a membership fee sufficient to cover the cost of administration.

We are glad to receive a communication from the Corresponding Secretary of the W. F. M. Society indicating the splendid work and growing interest among our women.

W. W. WOOLLARD, President.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your Board would express its very great gratification at the presence and efficient service of our Secretary of Church Extension, Dr. W. F. McMurry. His able address has placed this cause before the people in an intelligent and impressive manner, and we look for large results. A house of worship conserves the fruits of our labors. A good house represents the liberality of a people; a beautiful house types their piety.

There are more than twenty societies in our Conference that are without buildings. We hope soon to see all these homeless spiritual families well sheltered in respectable houses of worship.

During the past year we have raised for Church Extension $3,025.80, half of which, $1,512.90, is retained for use in our own bounds. The applications for aid always exceed our means. Our rapidly growing territory, especially along the M., J. & K. C. Railroad, and in the great Delta, which is fast filling with a white population, put additional responsibilities upon this Board. We hope, therefore, to have the co-operation of all the preachers in doing the work.

We call attention to the new department of the General Board, known as "The Department of Savings Fund for Church Building." Any church, society, or individual may send to the Corresponding Secretary any funds which are to be used for church building and thus accumulate a fund sufficient to build creditably, meantime helping others to do likewise.

We also call attention to the recent disciplinary provision for the organization of District Boards of Church Extension. Where the Presiding Elder so desires he may concentrate the forces of his whole district upon one point to build a church. The Greenville District has organized such a Board from which we hope for large results.

Through Mrs. L. C. Short, Corresponding Secretary, we learn that the Conference Woman's Home Mission Society has 121 auxiliaries, and has raised $2,326 for connectional purposes, besides a large amount of work done locally for the Orphans' Home, and other home enterprises. We commend their work most heartily.

We offer for adoption the following:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that the Presiding Elders be requested to give an hour of their District Conference sessions to the consideration of Church Extension.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We are profoundly impressed with the importance of this interest of the church. We know that all the arms of church exist for the purpose of holding forth the word of truth. How true is it that in our own borders there is increased demand for the distribution of the Word of God. We are pleased to note that our Conference ranks among the most loyal supporters of the American Bible Society. There is a marked increase in receipts in this Conference over last year. On an assessment of $1,200, we have paid $1,018.50 as against $912 the previous year, an increase of $106.50.

S. A. BROWN, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUES.

One of the chief duties of the church is the care of her young people. The Epworth League is an organized effort to give proper direction to the energies of young life, and to some extent, it is succeeding in this work. We have gone beyond the experimental stage of this movement, but it is yet too early to pass harsh judgment upon it because it has failed in some localities. We have passed the day of great mass-meetings and conventions, and it may be well that we have, but we are coming face to face with the real work which the League has set its hand to do.

The necessity of the League appears more imperative to-day than ever before. Religious home training is largely unknown and multitudes must depend upon the Sunday School for instruction in childhood, and upon the League for training in youth. Every faithful pastor must feel the importance of this work, but his hands and heart are full already and he may feel unable to give it his special care. But certainly there is no more promising field of service than that now occupied by the League.

We are pleased to report that a successful Mid-Year Conference was held at Grenada in June, in which the League had a fair share of attention. We report also 27 Senior Leagues and 24 Junior Leagues with an increase of 200 members.

The Epworth Era has grown in size, beauty, and circulation during the past year, and we heartily commend it to all our people as worthy of their liberal patronage.

This report closes the quadrennium of our work, and we record our gratitude to God for his favor upon us. We urge our preachers in charge to give the League a chance, to organize Mission Study Classes, and to request the young people to observe the Quiet Hour.

We call special attention to Young People's Day which it to be observed in the spring, and we hope all will have suitable services on the day selected.

G. M. Hull and W. L. Clifton are appointed representatives from this Board to co-operate with representatives from other Boards in providing for a Mid-Year Meeting.

T. W. LEWIS, President.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Sunday School Board recommends the following appropriations for the ensuing year: To needy Sunday Schools, to be used at the discretion of the agent of the Board on the recommendation of the pastors of the schools, $75. For the purchase of Children's Day Programs, the same to be purchased and distributed under the supervision of the agent of the Board, $100. For the expenses of the District Sunday School Institutes, to be arranged for by the Executive Committee after consultation with the Presiding Elder as to time and place, $100. For the clerical work of the Board to be used at the discretion of the Executive Committee, $50.

We ask that R. H. B. Gladney, I. D. Borders and R. P. Neblett be appointed a committee to confer with a like committee from the Mississippi Conference Sunday School Board as to the advisability of a Superintendents' Rally for both Conferences.

The work has been carefully looked into by the Board and found to be deepening in interest. The Mid-Year Conference held at Grenada in June, in connection with the other Boards of the Conference, was a great success. Dr. H. M. Hamill and wife were with us in a highly successful institute at Cleveland in November.

We ask the hearty and sympathetic co-operation of the presiding elders, pastors and superintendents that a forward movement may mark the efforts of next year. The Bible Teachers' Study Circle is commended to the consideration of the adult workers in our schools.

We ask an appropriation of $100 to pay the expense of this Board in participating in the Mid-Year Conference to be held under the direction of the several Conference Boards.

We ask the re-appointment of R. P. Neblett as agent of the Board to look after the clerical work in connection with his pastoral charge.

JOINT BOARD OF FINANCE.

We find that Rev. J. W. Raper, who upon recommendation of this Board, was directed to visit all the District Conferences during the year and present the claims of the Superannuate Endowment Fund, secured subscriptions to the amount of $1,197, $257 of which has been collected and placed in the hands of the Treasurer of this Board to forward to Rev. John R. Stewart, Secretary and Treasurer of this fund, less $42.50, traveling expenses of Bro. Raper. The remainder of this subscription, $940, is placed in the hands of the Secretary of this Board to be collected as it falls due. There were also given Bro. Raper subscriptions amounting to $360 for the North Mississippi Conference Superannuate Endowment Fund, $27.50 of which has been paid and, together with $15 contributed by Rev. J. A. Randolph, this sum has been placed to the credit of said fund.

ORPHANS' HOME—MAY, 1905, TO MAY, 1906.

This institution is no longer an experiment but a blessed reality, committed to the people called Methodists in the State of Mississippi. The splendid building planned for our new site in Jackson was completed in April, 1906, and the wards under our care moved from Water Valley to Jackson. The building is of brick, four stories in height, having four floors of about ten thousand square feet of surface each. The building has its own light and heating plant. The water supply is from the Jackson Water Works, and cost about $1,000.

The accounts of the Manager and Treasurer have been audited by R. L. Bennett, who was chosen to do that work.

The building has cost up to date of report.....$35,426

Value of land on which home is built..... 20,000

Value of plant$55,426

The cost of maintaining the home from December, 1904, to May, 1906, has averaged $823 per month. These figures show what a hold the home has on the hearts of our people. There have been an average of 100 children in the home. This number has been increased and the capacity of the new building will probably soon be taxed to the limit.

Rev. Q. A. Oats, who has been in charge of the home for two years, resigned in October and his resignation was accepted November 28, 1906, in the following resolutions:

Resolved, That this Board accepts the resignation of Brother Oats as Manager of the Mississippi Orphans' Home to take effect January 1, 1907, or at such a time between the meeting of the North Mississippi Conference and said date as may be agreed on by himself and his successor.

Resolved, That in accepting this resignation we assure Brother Oats of our keen appreciation of the labors of himself and wife in the care of the home, and of our prayers for him and his wherever they may be.

Four of the older girls have been in college this year. The Public School Board of Jackson has granted a full term to the home with pay for three teachers. Harris Business College is giving free tuition to two of our girls.

During the year 55 children have come into the home and 54 have gone out; 12 have joined the church. Morning and evening prayers are held in the chapel. The children have their own League and Missionary Society.

Two fire escapes have recently been erected at a cost of $1,800. In addition to our plant we have 160 acres of land in Neeshoba County, and thirty lots in the growing town of Gulfport.

Rev. Wm. M. Williams of the Mississippi Conference has been elected Manager.

An interesting event was celebrated in the home on Thanksgiving Day when Rev. W. M. Langley of the North Mississippi Conference, a graduate of Millsaps College, was married to Miss Mary Koon, a graduate of Grenada College, and one of the choice young women who has grown up in the home.

To appeal to your loyalty and support is a work superfluous. You have done nobly and we are sure you will continue to do so.

R. L. BENNETT,

J. H. SHERARD,

Committee.
